

The Immeasurable Life, Pt. 1: Beyond Imagination

When we're kids, we dream big. Life's possibilities seem limitless. As we grow older, setbacks and disappointments in our careers, marriages, and family life can wear us down and cause us to pursue contentment in all the wrong places. In this series, we'll explore a passage in Ephesians that tells us how God's plans for our lives are immeasurably greater than we can imagine. We only need to trust him.

Bottom Line: More is possible because God is able.

Discussion Questions:

1. What do you find that you continually want more of in life? Why is this so important to you? Looking back over the last season of your life, how have your desires shaped or impacted you (for the good or bad)?
2. Talk about a time when you achieved a major life goal. Did it satisfy your desires like you thought it would? Why or why not?
3. When you were young what were your dreams for the future? How did "life" impact your dreams as you grew older? Did you achieve your dreams, change your dreams, or did your dreams end? Why? What were the big contributors to this outcome?
4. Read Ephesians 2:10 and 3:20. What stops you from acting on the belief that God loves you and that he has a plan for your life and that it is immeasurably more than you can imagine?
5. Paul knew that our ability to achieve limits our capacity to dream. If you believed that Jesus was the power behind your ability to achieve, what specifically would you want to achieve?
6. What do you measure (which points to your ability to achieve)? What dream have you abandoned? Where have you stopped imagining or believing more is possible?
7. What has been the most helpful thought/idea from the message this week? How has that thought/idea helped you?
8. How can the group encourage you this week?
