

Part 3 | Big Impact

Sometimes you just don't know what hangs in the balance. Neither did Mordecai. But in a very real way, our actions today always leave a legacy. How would you live if you knew your actions today would leave a legacy for a generation tomorrow?

Scripture: Esther 3-4

Bottom Line: Your actions today impact a generation tomorrow.

Discussion Questions

1. To what extent do you think your life has been impacted by the character and decisions of your parents and grandparents, both positively and negatively?
2. When have you seen a seemingly small incident in your past (or a friend's past) have a bigger impact than expected?
3. Mordecai and Esther probably didn't realize their actions could save an entire nation. How often do you think about the long-term implications of your actions on future generations?
4. Both Mordecai's and Esther's actions required risk and courage. What risky or courageous decisions are you facing that could have a positive impact on a future generation?
5. If you believed your actions today would leave a legacy for a generation tomorrow, how might you live differently?

Moving Forward

Pray for your children (if you have children) and for others in your sphere of influence. Pray that God would use your life and daily decisions to leave a positive impact on future generations.

Changing Your Mind

"On that day, the enemies of the Jews had hoped to overpower them, but quite the opposite happened. It was the Jews who overpowered their enemies." Esther 9:1 NLT
