

Part 2 | Unfiltered

Our human relationships are not independent of our view and engagement with God the Father. They are also not immune to the effects of distortion and disconnectedness from Him. Last week we talked about how filters can distort how we view God. This week we explore the idea that a bad filter can also distort how we hear him.

Bottom Line: Jesus is the express image of God.

Discussion Questions

1. Give an example of a time when you may have heard the right words but in the wrong voice. What was the affect?
2. Consider this statement: "How we view and engage with God will determine how we view and engage with other people in our world." Where have you seen this true in your life?
3. How has Kambui's depiction of the story of the Garden of Eden influenced the way you view God, the Father of Creation?
4. Read John 1:1-5, 14 & 18 (Contemporary English Version). In light of this week's message and discussion, what stands out to you from these verses?
5. In what ways can knowing that Jesus is the express image of God benefit your growing relationship with him?
