

Light of the World, Pt. 2: From Sorrow to Joy

During the Christmas season, some people find it easy to be happy while others struggle with loneliness and sorrow. Yet some who are in the midst of suffering still find joy. How is that possible? What if there was a way to find joy regardless of your situation? There is, and it's found in God's favor and grace.

Bottom Line: I am favored by God and he is with me.

Discussion Questions:

2. What brings you the most joy this time of year and what causes great stress for you?
3. How would you define the following words: joy, happiness, favor, and grace?
4. Read Luke 1:26-33. God sent an angel to tell Mary, a young unmarried woman from a small town called Nazareth, that he had chosen her to be the mother of Jesus. Describe Mary's reaction to the angel. Was she happy, confused, upset, shocked?

6. What is your reaction to the following statement?
"God's favor and God's presence are not meant to bring us happy circumstances in this world. They're meant to bring us joy despite our circumstances."
